

Wi-Fi Competition

How to Set Up Your Nintendo DS™ Game

For help with reading this material, young children should ask their parent or guardian.

Please Note

Before you start, you first need to log in to the Pokémon Global Link on your computer and make sure you're registered for the competition on the Wi-Fi Competition page.

After a competition begins, it closes to new entries, so you won't be able to enter it.

The Pokémon Company International

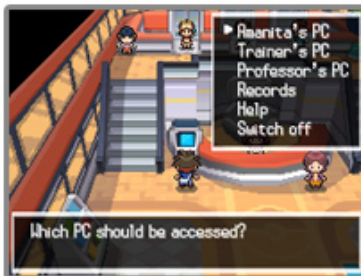

STEP 1

Put the Pokémon that you want to compete with into your Battle Box!

Note: You may register Pokémon to your Battle Box any time before the competition ends, but it is a good idea to finish registering them before the competition begins.

How to Set Up Your Battle Box

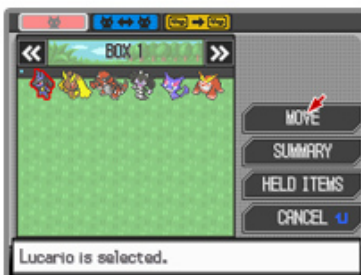

1. Access Amanita's PC (or Someone's PC), which can be found in Pokémon Centers and other places.

2. Choose "Battle Box."

3. The Battle Box will open.

4. Choose a Pokémon and select "Move."

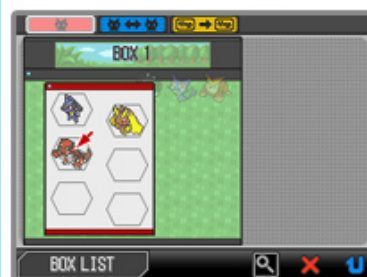

5. The Pokémon you chose will appear in the Battle Box.

6. Repeat this process with all of the Pokémon you plan to use in the tournament. When you're finished, close the Battle Box.

Removing Pokémon from the Battle Box

Use the stylus to drag and drop Pokémon outside the Battle Box to remove them from the Battle Box.

Please Note

■ There are times when an error message may appear, and you won't be able to register your Pokémon in the Wi-Fi Competition. Here's what to watch out for:

- When you have two or more of the same Pokémon in your Battle Box
- When you have a Pokémon that is not allowed by the competition regulations
- When you have a Pokémon that knows a move that is not allowed by the competition regulations
- When two or more Pokémon have the same held item
- When your Pokémon has a held item that was obtained through improper means

■ After you have registered for a competition, there are some things you won't be able to do with the Pokémon in your Battle Box until the competition ends:

- Swap them for other Pokémon
- Have them learn or forget moves
- Give or take held items

In addition, please note that Pokémon registered in your Battle Box for a competition cannot be used in normal play until the competition ends.

Now you need to enter the competition from the main menu. Save and quit your game.

STEP 2

Download the Digital Player ID for the Wi-Fi Competition!

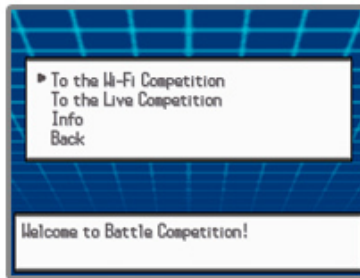

After entering the Wi-Fi Competition in the Pokémon Global Link, you'll be able to download the Digital Player ID for the competition.

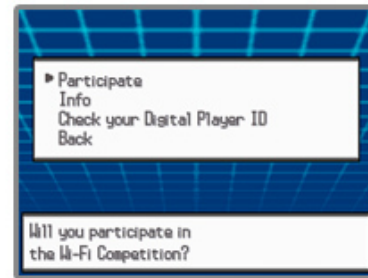

How to Get Your Digital Player ID

1. Choose "BATTLE COMPETITION" on the main menu of Pokémon Black Version 2, Pokémon White Version 2, Pokémon Black Version, or Pokémon White Version.

2. Choose "To the Wi-Fi Competition."

3. You'll be asked if you will participate in the Wi-Fi Competition. Choose "Participate."

4. Connect to Nintendo® Wi-Fi Connection and download the Digital Player ID.

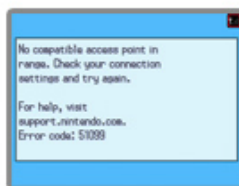

5. Information will appear for the Wi-Fi Competition that you entered on your PC.

6. Save your game after downloading the Digital Player ID.

If you can't find a wireless access point

If a screen such as the one shown to the left appears, you were unable to connect to Nintendo Wi-Fi Connection. Please check the information available at the link below and try again.

STEP 3

Register the Pokémon in your Battle Box for the Wi-Fi Competition!

You put Pokémon in your Battle Box in Step 1. Here's how to register those Pokémon for the Wi-Fi Competition.

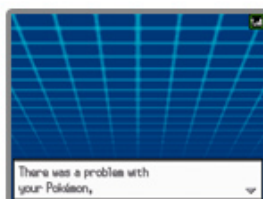

How to Register Your Pokémon

Note: Remember, after you finish Step 3 and complete registering, you will no longer be able to modify your Battle Box until the competition ends.

When you're unable to complete your registration for the Wi-Fi Competition

If you see a screen such as those shown to the left, then at least one of the Pokémon in your Battle Box is not allowed in the Wi-Fi Competition.

Please review Step 1 and adjust the Pokémon in your Battle Box.

If you can't register your Battle Box for the Wi-Fi Competition, check to see whether any of the following issues affect you:

- You have two or more of the same Pokémon in your Battle Box.
- You have a Pokémon that is not allowed by the competition regulations.
- You have a Pokémon that knows a move that is not allowed by the competition regulations.
- Two or more Pokémon have the same held item.
- You have a Pokémon that was modified through improper means.

After changing the Pokémon in your Battle Box according to the procedure in Step 1, please try the following steps again.

1. Choose "BATTLE COMPETITION" on the main menu of Pokémon Black Version 2, Pokémon White Version 2, Pokémon Black Version, or Pokémon White Version.

2. Choose "To the Wi-Fi Competition."

3. You'll be asked if you will participate in the Wi-Fi Competition. Choose "Participate."

4. Connect to Nintendo® Wi-Fi Connection and download the Digital Player ID.

5. Follow Step 3 to register the Pokémon in your Battle Box for the Wi-Fi Competition.

Please Note

- If you change your Nintendo DS™ hardware after downloading the Digital Player ID, and you connect to Nintendo® Wi-Fi Connection, your participation in the competition will be cancelled.
- If you change the order of moves for Pokémon in your Battle Box, you will be unable to participate in the competition.
- After you have registered for a competition, there are some things you won't be able to do with the Pokémon in your Battle Box until the competition ends:
 - Swap them for other Pokémon
 - Have them learn or forget moves
 - Give or take held Items

In addition, please note that Pokémon registered in your Battle Box for a competition cannot be used in normal play until the competition ends.

You've completed your registration for the competition! Now all you have to do is wait for the competition to start!

STEP 4

Participate in the Wi-Fi Competition!

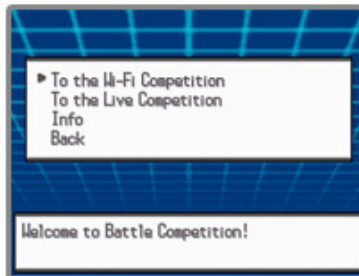

You can start battling as soon as the Wi-Fi Competition begins!

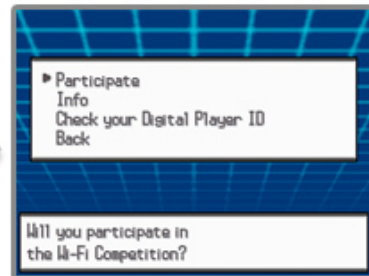

How to Start Battling

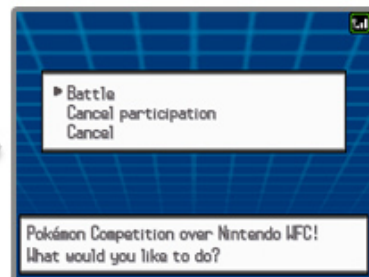

1. Choose "BATTLE COMPETITION" on the main menu of Pokémon Black Version 2, Pokémon White Version 2, Pokémon Black Version, or Pokémon White Version.

2. Choose "To the Wi-Fi Competition."

3. You'll be asked if you will participate in the Wi-Fi Competition. Choose "Participate."

4. After connecting to Nintendo® Wi-Fi Connection, you'll be asked what you would like to do. Choose "Battle."

5. You will be matched up with other players.

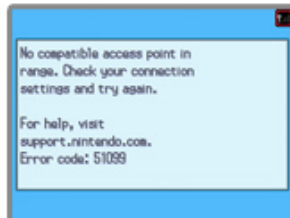

How to check your Rating and number of battles

You'll be able to view your Rating and number of battles on the screen that appears after connecting to Nintendo Wi-Fi Connection.

- You cannot check how many wins and losses you have. This information cannot be disclosed even if you contact customer service.
- Ratings are not updated immediately after a battle. It takes some time for your battle results to be reflected.

When you can't find a wireless access point

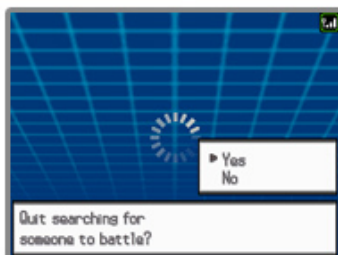

If a screen such as the one shown to the left appears, you were unable to connect to Nintendo Wi-Fi Connection. Please check the information available at the link below and try again.

6. When you've been matched up with another player, it's time to battle!
- Choosing "Run" will cause you to forfeit the match and will result in a loss.
 - Play each match to completion after being matched up with another player.
 - All battles started before 11:59 p.m. on the last day of the competition are valid.

What to do if nothing happens at the "Searching for your opponent..." screen

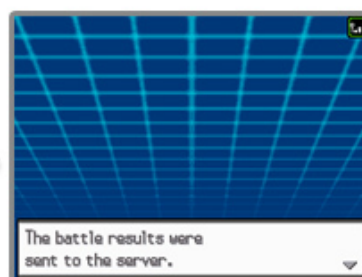

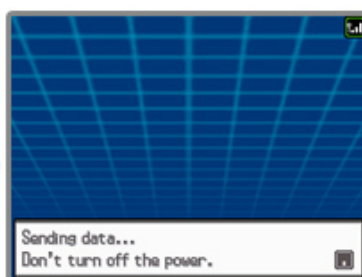

If the "Searching for your opponent..." screen appears and nothing happens for a long time, it is possible that no other player with a Rating close to yours is participating at that time. Please wait a while and try again.

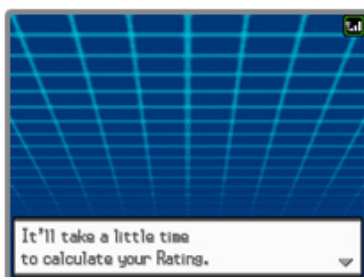

Press the B Button to cancel the search for an opponent.

7. After the battle ends, please wait a few moments. If the battle ended because you reached the time limit, the victor will be decided based on various factors, such as how many Pokémon remain.

8. The battle results will automatically be uploaded.

9. It will take a while for your Rating to be updated, but you can continue to battle during that time.

10. If you would like to continue battling, choose "Battle." If you would like to take a break for a while, choose "Cancel."

Note: If you choose "Cancel participation," you will no longer be able to participate in the Wi-Fi Competition.

Please Note

- If you disconnect from Nintendo® Wi-Fi Connection during a match, that match won't count.
- If you try to battle after the competition ends, you'll see a message that tells you the competition is now over.
- You may be penalized or disqualified from future competitions if turn off your Nintendo DS system's power during a match, or if you have a significant number of intentional disconnects during battles.

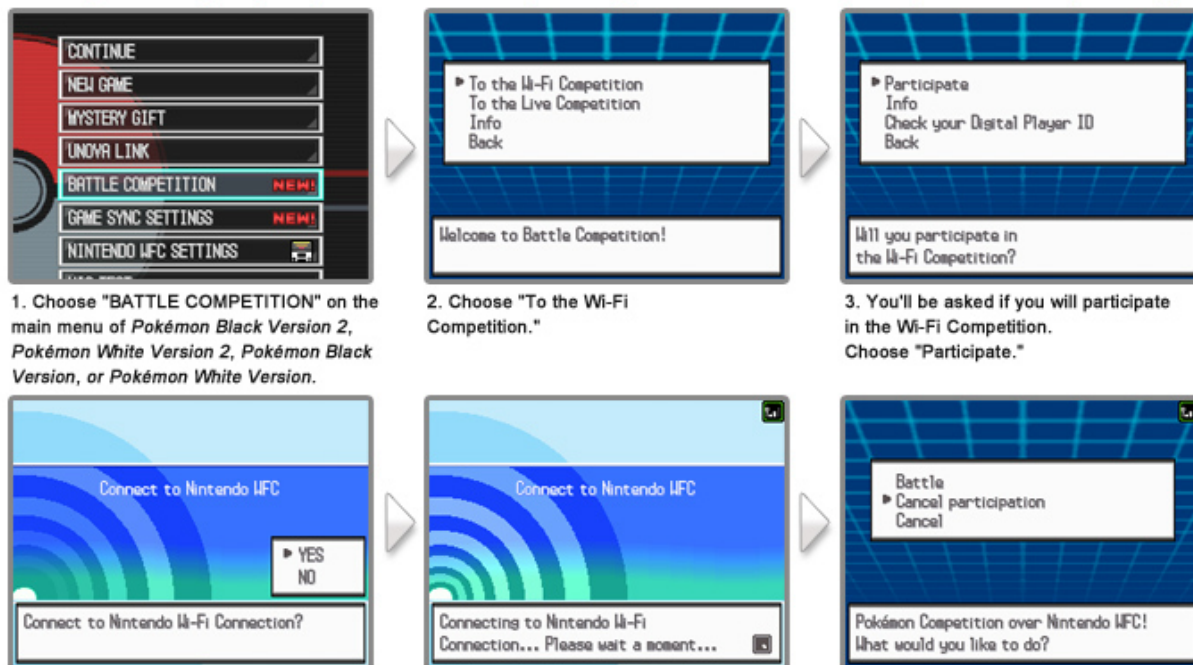

How to remove your Pokémon from the Battle Box (Cancel participation)

In order to remove the Pokémon from your Battle Box, follow the steps below to cancel your participation in the competition. During the competition, and even after the competition is over, you need to end your participation in the competition in order to remove your Pokémon from the Battle Box.

Here's how to do this, either while a competition is still going on or after a competition has ended.

During a Wi-Fi Competition (including the entry period)

Note: If you cancel your participation in a Wi-Fi Competition, you will not be able to participate in that competition again.

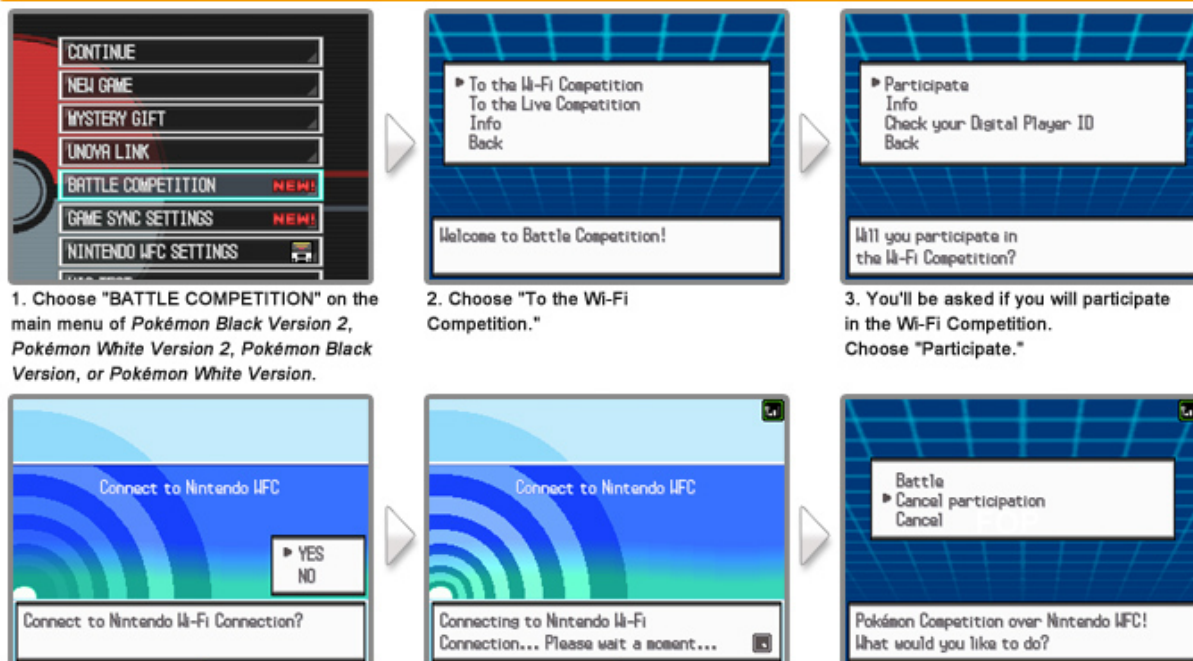

1. Choose "BATTLE COMPETITION" on the main menu of Pokémon Black Version 2, Pokémon White Version 2, Pokémon Black Version, or Pokémon White Version.

2. Choose "To the Wi-Fi Competition."

3. You'll be asked if you will participate in the Wi-Fi Competition. Choose "Participate."

4. After connecting to Nintendo® Wi-Fi Connection, you'll be asked what you would like to do. Choose "Cancel participation."

After a Wi-Fi Competition has ended

1. Choose "BATTLE COMPETITION" on the main menu of Pokémon Black Version 2, Pokémon White Version 2, Pokémon Black Version, or Pokémon White Version.

2. Choose "To the Wi-Fi Competition."

3. You'll be asked if you will participate in the Wi-Fi Competition. Choose "Participate."

4. After connecting to Nintendo Wi-Fi Connection, you'll be asked what you would like to do. Choose "Cancel participation."
